Pray for Priests

God, our Father, please send us holy priests, all for the Sacred and Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, all for the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, in union with St. Joseph. We pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests, and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you." (Jn 2:5) May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of Your love, seeking nothing but Your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

Reflection for Next Sunday

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 21, 2022

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7,11-13

Gospel Reading: Luke 13:22-30

People will come from north and south, east and west, and take their place in the Kingdom of God.

Family Connection

Families take advantage of certain days throughout the year to celebrate individuals in the family and to make sure that they know that they are not taken for granted. As a family, recall all of the days that someone in the family was celebrated in the past year—birthdays, Mother's Day, Father's Day, anniversaries, graduations, and so on. Next, challenge each individual to recall what gifts were received on the day(s) on which he or she was celebrated.

Emphasize that these days are intended to express appreciation in a special way but are not meant to replace the appreciation that we should always show. Point out how, at times, families can take one another for granted. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a story about some people who took something for granted and paid a price. Read aloud Luke 13:22-30. Explain that, in this story, some people took it for granted that they could enter the house whenever they wanted, but the master locked the gate and would not let them in after hours. Point out that Jesus was warning his listeners not to assume that they will have eternal life in heaven and not to take this invitation for granted.

As a family, commit to showing appreciation for one another in the days ahead, striving to not take for granted any of the many things that family members do in their roles as parents and children.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel Jesus said to his disciples "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it be accomplished!"

Your gift to the Society to assist those suffering in poverty will help set the earth on fire with God's love.

Religious Education News

The Religious Education Office is closed during July and August. We will be in the office over the course of the summer months to respond to messages left on the answering machine. Please leave a detailed message, your name and number where you can be reached. We will return your call as soon as possible.

Registration for 2022/2023

Within the next few weeks, we will be mailing the days, times and classroom assignments for your (children for this upcoming year. Please verify all the information carefully.

If you have not yet registered, please return your forms so that your child will receive his/her class assignments prior to September 24th.

Catechists Needed

In order to have a successful Religious Education Program we depend on the generosity of our Parish Community.

We are looking for volunteers to teach in our Religious Education Program this year starting in September.

Please consider giving just one hour of your time to this most important ministry in our Parish.

All persons 18 years or older, are most welcome to join in this amazing opportunity to impart your faith with the young people here at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish.

High School students are also invited to teach on Tuesdays or Saturdays in first through fourth grades. We would require two students to team teach in each classroom. Please contact the Rel. Ed. Office at (516)599-7222 for information .

If you have a desire to share your time and talent with these students wanting to learn more about their religion and the love of Jesus Christ.

During the weekend of August 27-28, please welcome Rev. Michael J. Rieder who will be with us to celebrate Masses and tell us about the work of Unbound, a lay Catholic sponsorship ministry that helps children and elderly in 19 developing countries. To learn more, call (800) 875-6564 or visit Unbound online at www.unbound.org.

THE PROMISES OF THE DEVOTION TO THE HOLY FACE OF JESUS

Promises of Our Lord Jesus Christ to Sr Marie of St Peter Discalced Carmelite Nun of Tours, France, in favor of those who honor His Holy Face

1. By offering My Face to My Eternal Father, nothing will be refused, and the conversion of many sinners will be obtained.
2. By My Holy Face, they will work wonders, appease the anger of God and draw down mercy on sinners.
3. All those who honor My Face in a spirit of reparation will by so doing perform the office of the pious Veronica.
4. According to the care they take in making reparation to My Face, disfigured by blasphemers, so will I take care of their souls which have been disfigured by sin. My Face is the Seal of the Divinity, which has the virtue of reproducing in souls the image of God.
5. Those who by words, prayers or writing defend My cause in the Work of Reparation, especially My priests, I will defend before My Father, and will give them My Kingdom.
6. As in a kingdom they can procure all that is desired with a coin stamped with the King's effigy, so in the Kingdom of Heaven they will obtain all they desire with the precious coin of My Holy Face.
7. Those who on earth contemplate the wounds of My Face shall in Heaven behold it radiant with glory.
8. They will receive in their souls a bright and constant irradiation of My Divinity, that by their likeness to My Face they shall shine with particular splendor in Heaven.
9. I will defend them, I will preserve them and I assure them of Final Perseverance.

Home visitation and Enthronement of the Holy Face of Jesus is available.

The Third Rail: Immodest Dress at Summer Masses

Peggy Frye - CATHOLIC ANSWERS

Yep, it's summertime again. The sun is out full blast, air-conditioners are working overtime, and we wear less clothing. Off go the closed-toe shoes and sweaters, on go the sandals; flip-flops, shorts, tank tops, and breezy little dresses. It's all good. After all, when the temperatures rise, keeping cool and maintaining that relaxed, laid-back feeling of summer is what it's all about. I'll even bet that most of us have at least one pair of flip-flops and some shorts in our closets right now. I know I do.

But do you wear them to Sunday Mass? Sadly, many Catholics do. Here in San Diego we enjoy beautiful weather year-round, so seeing super-casual attire at Mass is all too common. But summertime is worse—and it's not just the out-of-towners who show up at Mass looking as though they're ready for the beach. It's parishioners, too.

Communion during the summer can look like a waiting line at Disneyland or a ballgame: a parade of backless dresses, tube-tops, shorts, low-cut tops, strapless tops and dresses, tight skirts and jeggings, miniskirts and flip-flops. And it's not just the women who dress inappropriately at Mass. Men need to be checked, too. Enough with the torn T-shirts, saggy jeans, chest-baring tank tops, ball caps, flip-flops that expose gnarled toes, swimming trunks, shorts, and hairy legs. Ick.

Church is "a house of prayer in which the Eucharist is celebrated and reserved, where the faithful assemble, and where is worshiped the presence of the Son of God our Savior, offered for us on the sacrificial altar for the help and consolation of the faithful" (CCC 1181). Church is not a place where temptation and sin should abound, where sexual distractions should be permitted to compete with our Lord who is present in the sacrament of the altar. When we pray the Lord's Prayer at Mass, we say, "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil." So why are we allowing carnal temptations to be openly present at Mass? Why are we giving the Evil One permission to prowl throughout our sacred places, seeking the ruin of innocent souls?

Immodest dress appeals to the flesh, which, St. Thomas Aquinas says, tempts man by enticing him away from good. For the spirit on its part would delight always in spiritual things, but the flesh asserting itself puts obstacles in the way of the spirit. The Church doesn't bind us to dressing a certain way for Mass, but it certainly sends us plenty of reminders about the value and importance of dressing appropriately for Mass.

Building a Community of Faith, Hope, and Love

“Let us pray for seminarians, that they may listen to the voice of the Lord and follow it with courage and joy.”

-Pope Francis

Your gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal help to build a community of Faith by supporting the education of our seminarians as they prepare to become priests in our diocese. Meet Seminarian Hurley Mendez.

“I feel very blessed to be able to answer my call in the Diocese of Rockville Center. The CMA has supported me by providing the necessary resources to access formation programs where I can receive the knowledge and skills to experience and encounter Christ and serve and support the needs of our Diocese. I thank all those who join this noble campaign because they help not only in the formation of seminarians but also in programs that support the most vulnerable, giving fruits of charity and love, and thus, promote the mission of saving all the People of God.”

“As a seminarian, my call is to mold my heart to the heart of Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, who gave His life for his sheep. To be a seminarian is to be a friend of Christ and follow His Footsteps, carry on what He began, and spread it in every place, always, and to the entire world.”
