CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE- ECHOING MARY'S FIAT-HER YES

It is time for another Capital Campaign update, and I am grateful for the opportunity to share with you how your generous contributions are being used carefully, responsibly, and faithfully in accordance with the objectives of our Capital Campaign, “Echoing Mary’s Fiat—Her YES.” You may have already noticed some of the improvements taking place around Lourdes. If you travel down Park Boulevard, you will see that the Rectory has a brand-new driveway. The old driveway was beginning to look like a crater on the moon! Today, thanks to this important project, it is smooth, safe, and welcoming. I want to extend my sincere gratitude to Vinny Montepaone and his team from VDM Mason for their excellent work in the hot sun. The cost of this project was $16,000.

Since mid-August, our HVAC vendor, Quality, has also been working on an important project: the installation of two new boilers—one in the Parish Center and the other in the Rectory. Both projects are progressing and should be completed within a reasonable amount of time. These projects may not always be the most visible or glamorous aspects of parish life, but they are essential to maintaining and strengthening our Lourdes infrastructure. I want to thank everyone who has contributed to our Capital Campaign and those who continue to support it.

Your generosity is making a real difference as we strengthen our parish and prepare for the future during this incredibly special Centennial Year. As we continue to Echo Mary’s Fiat, may we remember her simple yet profound response to God: “Yes.” Her willingness to say yes to God’s plan is an example for each of us. Our yes helps us become instruments of Jesus Christ and reminds us to recognize His abundant generosity in our lives, now and forever.

9/11 COMMEMORATION 25th ANNIVERSARY - NEVER FORGET

I would also like to take a moment to personally thank Mr. Stephen Harth, Mrs. Megan Radin, and the entire school community for the beautiful and deeply meaningful tribute to the victims and families of September 11, 2001. This year’s commemoration was particularly significant as we marked the 25th anniversary of that tragic day. Our school community came together to remember, to honor, and to pray. The school began the commemoration by honoring the First Responders who marched down Sheehy Place with a color guard.

The students and faculty then processed with American flags right behind them over to Wright Avenue. From there, everyone gathered on the church steps for a commemorative photograph, generously captured by drone by one of our school parents.

Following the procession, we gathered together for a Memorial Mass. We prayed for all those who lost their lives on September 11th and for those who have died in the years since as a result of that day. We also remembered in prayer those who continue to suffer from illnesses connected to 9/11. What our school community demonstrated that day was truly beautiful. Through their presence and participation, they showed courage, honor, loyalty, love, and faith. We remember. We pray. We honor. We will never forget.

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us!

Fr. Jim

Pray for Priests

God, our Father, please send us holy priests, all for the Sacred and Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, all for the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, in union with St. Joseph. We pray that the Blessed Mother wraps her mantle around your priests and, through her intercession, strengthens them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, “Do whatever He tells you.” (Jn 2:5) May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of Your love, seeking nothing but Your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Principal's Message

This Sunday's Gospel reminds us that God's generosity is far greater than we can imagine. In the parable of the workers in the vineyard, Jesus teaches us that God does not measure our worth by comparing us with others. Instead, He welcomes each of us with mercy, love, and generosity. We are called to respond with grateful hearts and to extend that same kindness to those around us.

As we finish another wonderful week at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic School, we have much for which to be grateful. Our hallways and classrooms were filled with learning, faith, and excitement as our students continued to settle into the routines of a new school year.

This week, we welcomed our parents and guardians for Back-to-School Night and Meet the Teacher Night. It was a wonderful opportunity for families to visit our classrooms, meet our dedicated teachers, learn about the curriculum, and discover the many ways their children will grow throughout the year. The evening reminded us that the education of our children is a true partnership among the home, school, and parish. Together, we are committed to forming young people who are strong in faith, eager to learn, and ready to serve others with love.

We also came together to celebrate our heroes as we observed Patriot Day and commemorated the twenty-fifth anniversary of September 11, 2001. We remembered in prayer those who lost their lives, the families who continue to carry their memory, and the courageous first responders who ran toward danger to help others. We were especially grateful for the police officers, firefighters, emergency personnel, military members, and community heroes who joined us for this meaningful celebration. Those who were unable to attend were certainly with us in spirit.

Although our students were not yet born when the events of September 11 occurred, it is important that we teach them to remember. We teach them not only about the tragedy of that day, but also about the courage, unity, compassion, and selfless service that followed. Our heroes remind us that love is revealed most powerfully when we place the needs of others before our own.

Inspired by our school-year theme, "Mary's Yes... Our Yes!", may we continue to say "yes" to God by recognizing His generosity, strengthening our school partnership, serving those in need, and leading with faith and love. May God continue to bless our students, families, faculty, staff, parish, and all who protect and serve our community.

Mary's Yes... Our Yes!

Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us!

Reflection for Next Sunday
Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 27, 2026

First Reading: Ezekiel 18:25-28
 Second Reading: Philippians 2:1-11
 Gospel Reading: Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus poses a question to the chief priests and elders on the meaning of obedience.

Family Connection

The example Jesus poses in today's Gospel could have been taken directly from family experience. Each of us can recall instances in which family members spoke one thing but then did another. The point of Jesus' story is to show that our actions speak louder than words, even with God.

As you gather as a family, talk about times when a family member said one thing and then did another. Acknowledge that sometimes the action taken displays a true change of heart. Then read today's Gospel, Matthew 21:28-32. Observe that Jesus faulted the religious leaders for not allowing John the Baptist's message of repentance to change their hearts and actions. The word we sometimes use for this change of heart is conversion. Jesus wants us to do more than pay lip service to the Gospel; he wants us to be transformed by his word.

Pray together that your family will experience a conversion to God and show evidence of this in both actions and words. Pray together today's second reading, Philippians 2:1-5.

REMINDER

We need your assistance in maintaining an accurate Parish Census. When you change your address, telephone number, or move out of the parish, please notify us. Just drop us a note or call us at 516-599-1269. Thank you.

All parishioners are invited to volunteer to be a part of the offertory procession at the Mass which you attend. This may be especially appropriate if the Mass is being offered for a relative or friend. Please see one of the Ushers before Mass begins to make your intention known.

Pastor
Our Lady of Lourdes

Malverne, NY 11565

Dear Father

Greetings on the Birthday of our dear Mother Mary.

On behalf of my Diocese of Chingleput, Tamilnadu, South India, I thank you very much for your kindness to allow me to do the Mission Appeal. As I myself preached in all the masses, your kind gesture will be of very much use for my Diocese of Chingleput.

I thank also the Parish Staff and the Parishioners for their kindness and generosity. Your hospitality is very much appreciated. I enjoyed your company as well as the other priests in the Rectory.

(Father Joseph Gaspar)

Saint Gertrude's Church
