Greetings from Rome — The Eternal City!

As I write to you from St. Peter's Square in Vatican City, I am with our pilgrims—and pilgrims from around the world—for the Wednesday audience with our Holy Father, Pope Leo, the Vicar of Christ and Successor of St. Peter. When you come to Saint Peter's and are surrounded by so many people from so many countries, you truly experience the meaning of "Church." It reminds me that we are one Church, one faith, and one baptism in Jesus Christ.

The Pope is the visible head of Christ on earth and of the entire Church. He is the Pontiff, whose title means "bridge builder," uniting all together as one in Christ. This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of St. John Lateran, which happens to be the church of the Bishop of Rome—the Pope himself. It is called the Mother of All Churches because this is where the popes began their reign before moving to Saint Peter's Basilica.

The Basilica of St. John Lateran was built in 324 AD and was given to the papacy by the Lateran family. This beautiful Baroque and Neoclassical church holds many treasures of our faith. It is dedicated to Christ the Savior and St. John the Baptist.

When you enter the Basilica, on the left there is a beautiful image of the Last Supper that Jesus shared with His disciples. At the top of the image, according to tradition, is a piece of real wood from the table Jesus used at the Last Supper.

As we reflect on the Church, we naturally think of a building; however, the Lord also reminds us that we are the Church as His people. In today's Gospel from John, we hear of Jesus cleansing the temple—a reminder that we, too, must cleanse our own hearts and lives so that we may better reflect the Kingdom of God here on earth.

In his audience with us today, Wednesday, November 5, 2025, Pope Leo spoke about the power of the Resurrection of Christ, reminding us that whether in the smooth or most difficult moments of life, Christ is always with us. From the awe-inspiring Sistine Chapel to the sacred Catacombs, one truly experiences that we are surrounded by a "cloud of witnesses" who continue to guide and strengthen our faith.

May we take this time to reflect on what it means to be Church—as a parish, as families, as individuals, and as the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church.

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us."
— Hebrews 12:1

Reflection: PRAY FOR OUR DEAR COUNTRY

In 1792, Bishop John Carroll of Baltimore, the nation's first Catholic bishop, chose the Blessed Mother as "Patroness of the United States," and he entrusted the new United States of America to her maternal care. Then, 54 years later, on May 13, 1846 — the same month and day she would appear years later at Fatima — the nation's bishops named Mary under the title of "The Immaculate Conception" as the patroness of this country. Once again, the bishops solemnly entrusted the United States to our Blessed Mother in 1959, when the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception was dedicated in Washington, D.C.

"In this present moment, when there is so much division and unrest in our country, and when many of the values that formed our nation seem to be at risk, we again need to turn to our Blessed Mother," Warsaw emphasized. "We need to pray for her intercession, that leaders and all who seek public office will follow the path of Truth, guarantee religious liberty, and ensure that all human life is valued and protected, most especially the unborn."

George Washington, our first president, strongly reminded citizens of the need for heavenly help. In his "Farewell Address," he told the nation, "[T]he propitious smiles of Heaven can never be expected on a nation that disregards the eternal rules of order and right which Heaven itself has ordained." He also emphasized, "Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of patriotism who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of men and citizens. The mere politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connections with private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths, which are the instruments of investigation in courts of justice? And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."

From those earliest of times of Roman persecutions, Christians would pray the simple yet very powerful Sub Tuum Praesidium:

"We fly to your patronage, O holy Mother of God; despise not our prayers in our necessities, but ever deliver us from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin." EWTN 2024

A Veterans Prayer

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

You are warmly invited to join Our Lady of Lourdes Parish for a Mass of Remembrance as we prayerfully honor and remember all those who have died during the past year.

Together, as a parish family, we will celebrate their lives, commend them to God's loving mercy, and offer comfort and hope to their families and friends.

May this sacred liturgy be a time of healing, faith, and shared remembrance.

Another real casualty of abortion, besides the babies who are killed, the women who suffer, and the doctors who do the killing, is our own humanity. Every society is judged by the way it treats its defenseless and dependent. If we continue on this path towards inhumanity, our society and our civilization will certainly perish.

Pray for Priests

God, our Father, please send us holy priests, all for the Sacred and Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, all for the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, in union with St. Joseph. We pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests, and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you." (Jn 2:5) May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of Your love, seeking nothing but Your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

Principal's Message

From the Principal's Desk: A Spirit of Thankfulness

As we move through the school year, it's easy to get swept up in the day-to-day rhythm—assignments, events, sports, and responsibilities. But this season gives us a gentle reminder to slow down and turn our hearts toward gratitude. At Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic School and Parish, thankfulness isn't just a seasonal idea—it's rooted in who we are. It's an expression of our faith, a reflection of the love we're called to share, and a reminder that everything we have is a gift from God.

Gratitude shows up in countless ways across our campus and parish. It's a student helping a classmate without being asked. It's a teacher staying after school to offer extra support. It's a smile in the hallway, a parent volunteering time, a parishioner praying for our school community. These small, quiet moments of generosity and kindness are what build the spirit of Lourdes. They create a culture where people feel known, valued, and loved.

We are especially grateful for the more than 70 years of support, sacrifice, and prayer from a community so deeply rooted in Catholic education. That legacy is not just our foundation, it's our strength. Generation after generation, families have walked through these halls, celebrated Mass in this parish, and committed themselves to forming young hearts in faith and knowledge. What a gift to be part of that tradition.

This season, I invite all of us—students, staff, families, and parishioners—to make gratitude for daily practice. Let's speak it, show it, and live it. A thank-you note, a kind word, a prayer for someone in need, these simple acts can carry tremendous grace. I'm truly grateful to each of you and for the blessing of being part of this incredible school and parish family. Thank you for your faith, your support, and your love.

Reflection for Next Sunday

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 16, 2025

First Reading: Malachi 3:19-20

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Gospel Reading: Luke 21:5-19

Jesus predicts the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem and warns his followers that persecution will come before the end time.

Family Connection

Children, while innocently naïve about most world events, are also profoundly sensitive to the concerns felt by adults. We can help children interpret adult concerns by sharing information about current events in appropriate ways. We can also put these concerns in the light of God's kingdom and the assurance of God's care for us.

Discuss with your children one or more current events or a situation in your family which shows difficulties that may challenge our trust in a God who cares for us. Then read together today's Gospel, Luke 21:5-19. Notice how Jesus said that even when his disciples are persecuted, God would be with them.

Together with your children, talk about ways in which God might bring good out of the difficult events you discussed. Talk together about some actions you might take as a family to make better the situations you discussed. Conclude by praying for the needs of the people involved in the events you named. In prayer, place each of these difficult situations into God's hands.

Focus on Religious Freedom

Congress Must Act to Protect Religious Workers

A major staffing crisis is looming for religious ministries throughout the United States, unless Congress passes and the President signs the bi-partisan Religious Workforce Protection Act to alleviate a major backlog in processing Religious Worker Visa applications.

Under current law, foreign born religious workers are permitted to live and work in the United States for up to five years through the nonimmigrant religious worker (R-1) visa. During that time, they may apply for and receive permanent residency.

However, over the last five years Sens. Susan Collins (R-Maine) and Tim Kaine (D-Virginia) have repeatedly raised concerns with the State Department and Department of Homeland Security about the increasing backlog in processing these applications, forcing foreign born religious workers to leave after five years, for at least a year.

That backlog, they point out, is "costing churches, mosques, synagogues, and other religious organizations the beloved religious workers on whom their congregations, and the local communities that they serve, have grown to depend."

This is forcing departure of increasing numbers of Catholic priests, religious sisters and brothers, and others serving the Church throughout the United States, leaving parishes, hospitals, schools, and other ministries understaffed, and Catholics without access to sacraments and spiritual care.

The Religious Workforce Protection Act, sponsored by Sens. Collins, Kaine, and Jim Risch (R-Idaho), and a companion bill in the House of Representatives sponsored by Reps. Mike Carey (R-Ohio) and Richard Neal (D-Massachusetts), would empower the Department of Homeland Security to extend temporary R-1 nonimmigrant status for religious workers past five years, so they can remain in the country pending a decision on their permanent resident application.

The legislation is supported by religious leaders across a wide range of faith communities, including Catholic, Jewish, Evangelical, Episcopal, Muslim, and Hindu.

Please urge your U.S. Senators and Congressional Representative to support H.R. 2672 / S. 1298, the Religious Workforce Protection Act.
