THE GUIDING LIGHT FROM THE GROTTO
THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
MATTHEW 25:14-30

FIRST, INVEST IN THE KINGDOM OF GOD

As we approach the conclusion of our liturgical year,our scripture readings, similar to last Sunday, our Scripture readings have been preparing us for the end of our individual lives and of the earth itself. However, we know that even though this earthly world will one day fade, our eternal world remains forever. As is said in the Eucharistic Prayer for the Dead at Mass, "life has changed, not ended." Today, Jesus' parable from the Gospel of Matthew on the servants and the talents encourages the early Christian community and us for Christ's return. While we do not know the time or the hour when Christ will come again or even our own death, we must always be ready and prepared.

Like the servants in the Gospel, each day of our lives we are called to live in an active and responsible manner while waiting by investing all that we have into God's Kingdom. This is shown through our good deeds and using God's gifts until the final coming of the Son of Man. We are to live like the worthy wife (woman) who placed value and dignity in manual work, thinking more of others and less of herself, reaching out in charity and having respect for all no matter one's role in life.

One person who fits the example of investing her gifts and talents in God is St. Francis Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized a saint. Popularly known as Mother Cabrini, her feast day was this Friday, November 13th. In his homily on the canonization of Mother Cabrini, Pope Pius XII wrote: "she was a humble woman who became outstanding not because she was famous, or rich or powerful, but because she lived a virtuous life. From the tender years of her youth, she kept her innocence as white as a lily and preserved it carefully with the thorns of penitence; as the years progressed, she was moved by a certain instinct and a supernatural zeal to dedicate her whole life to the service and greater glory of God." Mother Cabrini went on to found the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart whose mission was a devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus through the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, running homes for the old and the sick, orphanages, and schools. In 1889, Pope Leo XII sent her to New York, where she founded an orphanage. In all she founded 67 institutions across the United States, South America and Europe. She died of malaria in Chicago in 1917. May we learn from saints like Mother Cabrini and place our heart into the Sacred Heart of Jesus so that it may conform to His heart. The Shrine to Mother Cabrini is right here in our backyard in Upper Manhattan. Our Rosary Altar Society ran a pilgrimage there last month. It is a worthy place to visit and pray.

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always.

St. Francis Xavier Cabrini, pray for us!

Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us!

Fr. Jim

St. Vincent de Paul Society

The good news of today's Gospel is the extravagance of what is being given us. All we need do is be faithful in "small matters." The cost of fidelity has no comparison to the reward given.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you are sharing God's extravagant love.

Our seventh grade students recently met Olympic Gold Medalist Katie Ledecky via Zoom! In conjunction with Catholic Health, Katie announced the launch of a special mental health initiative for our students through journaling. Katie spoke with the students about how journaling has helped her throughout her career.

She also shared the central role her Catholic faith plays in her life with the students. Each student received a special Wellness Journal inspired by Katie from Catholic Health. The students will spend time journaling regularly here at Lourdes. Many thanks to Katie Ledecky and Catholic Health for this wonderful opportunity!

Principal's Message

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the talents. A master entrusts his servants with different amounts and praises those who put what they received to work. The parable invites us to ask how we are using the gifts God has entrusted to us. (Matthew 25:14–30)

That question is at the heart of who we are as a Catholic school. At Mass, we give thanks to God for all we have received. In our classrooms, we help students discover and develop their gifts. In our daily life together, we teach them to notice who might need what they have to offer. These are everyday ways our children learn to follow Christ.

As we bring the first trimester to a close at the end of this month, we are especially grateful for our students' academic accomplishments. I'm proud of the progress they have made and of the effort behind it, from gaining confidence as readers to sticking with a challenging math problem. Thank you to our teachers for guiding that growth and to our families for encouraging it at home.

This past week at our Book Fair, our older students read aloud to our younger students, sharing their love of reading and giving the younger children their time and attention. Our Student Council sponsored a Dress Down Day in support of Wreaths Across America, giving us an opportunity to honor our veterans and remember those who have died. Our eighth graders also held their car wash. Thank you to everyone who helped with these events and came out to support the Class of 2027.

As Thanksgiving approaches, our school students continue to work alongside our parish Faith Formation students through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul's food drive. Together, they are helping put food on the tables of neighbors who need it this Thanksgiving. I'm grateful that our children have the opportunity to serve together as one parish community. Families who wish to contribute may send in donations by Wednesday, November 18.

Our school theme, "Mary's Yes… Our Yes!", reminds us that Mary followed her yes to God by going to visit Elizabeth. As we give thanks for what our children have learned and accomplished this trimester, may we follow Mary's example and look for ways to share what God has given us.

Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us!

Reflection for Next Sunday

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe
(Thirty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

November 22, 2026

First Reading: Ezekiel 34:11-12,15-17
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:20-26,28
Gospel Reading: Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus teaches that when the Son of Man comes in glory, he will judge the nations, separating the sheep from the goats.

Family Connection

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us that we will be judged on only one thing: the acts of mercy we have shown to the least among us. Jesus identifies with the least ones; thus we serve Jesus whenever we serve one of the least ones. The Church calls the actions that Jesus described in today's Gospel the Corporal Works of Mercy. These works are to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to bury the dead, to shelter the homeless, to visit the sick and imprisoned, and to give alms to the poor. In these actions we show God's compassion and mercy to those in need.

As you gather as a family, recall the list of the Corporal Works of Mercy. Talk about some concrete examples of how your family might do these actions in your community and then discuss why it is important that we do these things. Read Matthew 25:31-46. Ask: Why does Jesus say we ought to do these works of mercy? (Because whenever we show mercy to another person, we show mercy to Jesus himself.) Choose one Corporal Work of Mercy that your family will act upon this week. Pray together that your family will see and serve Jesus in the least ones among us. Pray the Lord's Prayer or an Act of Love.

REMINDER

We need your assistance in maintaining an accurate Parish Census. When you change your address, telephone number, or move out of the parish, please notify us. Just drop us a note or call us at 516-599-1269. Thank you.

All parishioners are invited to volunteer to be a part of the offertory procession at the Mass which you attend. This may be especially appropriate if the Mass is being offered for a relative or friend. Please see one of the ushers before Mass begins to make your intention known.
